INS Brahmaputra fire: Body of missing Leading Seaman found

Sitendra Puran Singh

SAGAR RAJPUT
MUMBAI, JULY 24

THREE DAYS after a fire broke out onboard Navy's guided missile frigate INS Brahmaputra, divers early Wednesday recovered the body of a 25-year-old Leading Seaman, who had gone missing since the incident.

Colaba police filed an accidental death report after the recovery of the body. The Leading Seaman was identified as Sitendra Puran Singh from Surajgarh, Rajasthan.

Navy officers said INS Brahmaputra was undergoing a refit at Mumbai Harbour when the fire broke out Sunday. It was noticed by the ship's duty staff while carrying out routine maintenance work.

"The fire was brought under control by ship's crew with assistance from firefighters from Naval Dockyard, Mumbai and other ships in the harbour, by July 22," a Navy officer said.

Subsequently, the ship experienced severe listing to one side and despite efforts it could not be brought to an upright position. "The ship continued to list further alongside her berth and is presently resting on one side," said the Navy, which has ordered an inquiry into the incident.

It later came to light that the Leading Seaman was missing following which a search was launched. The body was recovered near the ship by divers Wednesday. The Navy said it stands resolutely with bereaved family in this hour of grief.

VVIP security: Govt alerts DGs, cites attempt on Trump's life

MAHENDER SINGH
MANRAL
NEW DELHI, JULY 24

CITING THE recent assassination attempt on former US President Donald Trump, the central government has asked Director Generals of states, union territories and paramilitary forces to increase security measures so "high-risk dignitaries" can be kept safe, particularly during rallies, corner meetings, and roadshows.

Trump survived an assassination attempt on July 13, while addressing a campaign rally near Pennsylvania. He was shot and wounded in his right ear by a 20-year-old man, who fired eight rounds with an AR-15-style rifle from the roof of a building. The incident is one of seven assassination attempts cited by the Centre in its communication shared on July 16 with the DGs, including those in charge of the CRPF, CISF, ITBP, NSG as well as state intelligence bureaus.

"Former PM of Japan, Shinzo Abe, was fatally shot on July 8, 2022 from close quarters by an individual using a homemade shotgun, while addressing a corner public meeting. During a road march, former Pakistan PM Imran Khan was fired upon on November 3, 2022 and reportedly suffered a bullet injury. Vice-President of Argentina, Christina Fernandez, escaped an assassination bid on September 1, 2022 as a man unsuccessfully tried to fire a loaded pistol close to her head," said an official, citing the communication from the Centre's internal security division.

"During an election campaign speech of former PM of Japan, Fumio Kishida, on April 15, 2023, a youth hurled a smoke bomb towards him from within the crowd. Fernando Villavicencio, one of the candidates for the Presidency of Ecuador, was shot dead on August 9 last year as he rode a police pick-up vehicle after a public rally. Slovak Prime Minister Robert Fico suffered life-threatening injuries when he was shot and wounded in an attempted assassination on May 15 this year during a public event," said the official.

The note states that such incidents underline the vulnerabilities of high-risk dignitaries to various threats during public interfaces, including rallies, corner meetings, and roadshows. "We all should work on three main points - physical security measures, technical surveillance, and contingency drills and role of personal security officers," the official said, citing the communication.

Physical security measures include controlling access to the venues and checking/frisking of men and material.

"... The venue should be put through comprehensive physical, visual and technical checks followed by deployment of security personnel," said the official, citing the communication.

The official said drills to prepare for possible contingency situations or eventualities should be formulated and rehearsed.

Solider, militant killed in Kupwara encounter; 2nd gunfight in 24 hours

BASHAARAT MASOOD
SRINAGAR, JULY 24

A SOLDIER and a militant have been killed in a fierce gunfight in north Kashmir's Kupwara on Wednesday, the Indian Army said.

The gunfight began Tuesday evening when a joint team of army and Jammu and Kashmir Police launched a search and cordon operation after receiving intelligence reports about militant movement in the higher reaches of Lolab valley in Kupwara.

This is the second gunfight in the UT in the last 24 hours.

According to Army, security personnel spotted suspected militants near Trimukha Top in Lolab during a search operation Tuesday, leading to an exchange of fire. The operation was halted briefly as it grew darker but resumed Wednesday morning after hiding militants opened fire on the joint team.

"Based on the input, a joint search operation was launched by Indian Army & J&K Police on days leading up to 23 and 24 July (sic)," the Army's Chinार Corps posted on X. "On 24 July, suspicious movement was observed and challenged by vigilant troops in response to which terrorists opened sumed Wednesday morning after hiding militants opened fire on the joint team.

"Based on the input, a joint search operation was launched by Indian Army & J&K Police on days leading up to 23 and 24 July (sic)," the Army's Chinार Corps posted on X. "On 24 July, suspicious movement was observed and challenged by vigilant troops in response to which terrorists opened fire. In the ensuing fire fight one terrorist has been eliminated and a (sic) NCO injured".

The army personnel has been identified as Naik (gunner) Dilwar Khan. Police sources said he belonged to the Artillery unit of the army.

"All Ranks of the Chinार Corps salute the supreme #sacrifice of our braveheart Nk (Gnr) Dilwar Khan, who laid down his life in the line of duty," the Army posted on X. "Chinार Warriors salute his immense valour and sacrifice, express deepest condolence and stand in solidarity with the bereaved family".

According to sources, the operation is still ongoing and that there could be one more militant hiding in the area. Police suspect that the militants had recently infiltrated into the Valley from Kupwara sector.

SC orders status quo at Shambhu border, proposes committee to reach out to farmers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, JULY 24

THE SUPREME Court Wednesday ordered a status quo at the Shambhu border, where Haryana has put up barricades to stop protesting Punjab farmers from heading to Delhi, and proposed an independent committee to reach out to the farmers.

The court was hearing Haryana's plea seeking a stay on the Punjab and Haryana HC's directive to open the border near Ambala on an experimental basis. It has been closed for public transport since February.

"We are proposing to constitute some independent committee comprising persons who can reach out to farmers and to suggest where they are wrong or right and can communicate with other stakeholders also," a bench of Justices Surya Kant, Dipankar Datta and Ujjal Bhuyan said, and asked the two states to suggest names to include in the panel.

"It is a case of trust deficit," said Justice Surya Kant. "We will think of some independent persons, who are neutral..."

The border has been closed for public transport since February. File

"Till such times, both states are directed to maintain status quo at the site... to prevent flaring up the situation at Shambhu border," the bench said.

Appearing for Haryana, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta said the protesters have hundreds of tractors and trolleys modified as "armoured tanks" and that it may lead to a law and order situation if they are allowed to enter Delhi.

"Can you open it without allowing these tractors and trolleys to come?" the bench said. Mehta said even allowing this on an experimental basis may lead to law and order problems, and that the matter should be better left to the wisdom of the state.

Release of panel's report on Malayalam film industry stayed

SHAJU PHILIP
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM,
JULY 24

HOURS BEFORE its findings were to be made public, the Kerala High Court Wednesday stayed the release of a report on the problems faced by women in the Malayalam movie industry.

The report had been prepared by the state government-appointed Justice K Hema Commission.

The court's interim stay on the findings of the commission came on the back of a petition by filmmaker Saji Parayil, who challenged the state information commission's July 6 directive ordering that the findings be made public.

The commission was set up in 2017 after a prominent woman actor was allegedly abducted and sexually assaulted in a car near Kochi.

Actor Dileep was arrested in connection with the case and is currently being tried for it.

In his petition, Parayil argued that the disclosure of such a report could affect the privacy of those who had deposited before the commission.

Set up by the Left Democratic Alliance government, the commission saw scores of women from the industry depose before it on the condition that their names be kept confidential.

The commission, which submitted its report in 2019, was believed to have recommended a tribunal to look into the allegations, although the contents of the report were never officially made public.

The issue of making the report public has been a subject of controversy in Kerala.
